These Regulations are available in several languages; however, only the version drafted in Spanish shall prevail in the event of any discrepancy in interpretation.

The Regulations are applicable and mandatory for: i. Apartment clients and guests and their visitors and/or companions; ii. users of services and facilities of the Apartments open to the public; iii. persons who occasionally access or circulate within the Apartments; iv. attendees at events held at the Apartments; and v. contractors, suppliers, organizers and other personnel involved in the development of such events (the “Recipients”).

The Regulations apply to all areas and spaces of the Apartments, whether for exclusive or shared use, without distinction, and are available to the Recipients on the Apartments' website, via the QR code containing general information about the establishment and at the reception desk, where they may be consulted at any time.

The rules and prohibitions set forth in these Regulations are mandatory and shall also apply to conduct which, although not expressly mentioned, contravenes their spirit or purpose.

The Apartments reserve the right to establish new rules that supplement, amend or expand those set out herein, particularly those intended to regulate the use of specific spaces or certain behaviours, in the exercise of its right of ownership and its duty to ensure the proper operation of the establishment, guaranteeing guests, employees, etc., an appropriate stay or working environment.

The Apartments reserve the right of admission and the authority to cancel reservations in the event of non-compliance with these Regulations, with basic rules of coexistence or in the event of disrespectful behaviour towards facilities and/or persons, under the terms set out below.

Any dispute arising from the application of these Regulations shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the ordinary courts of the place where the Apartments are located, with express waiver of any other jurisdiction that might apply, without prejudice to the intervention of the criminal courts where appropriate.

We thank you for choosing us and invite you to comply with these Regulations, prepared for your comfort, safety and well-being. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please contact the reception desk. For these purposes, the Apartments Director, together with reception staff and, where applicable, concierge services, are at your disposal during your stay.

I. CHECK-IN AND ACCESS RULES

ARTICLE 1.- CHECK-IN AND CHECK-OUT AT THE APARTMENTS

The Apartments provide a self check-in service where guest registration and admission procedures are carried out, as well as the handover of the apartment keys.

Check-in (the "Check-In") implies the mandatory identification of all occupants of the accommodation upon arrival and is available from 3:00 p.m., at which time the apartment key will be provided. In the event of early arrival, the Apartments may offer early Check-In where possible; however, key delivery shall be subject to apartment availability.

Check-out (the "Check-Out") marks the end of the stay and must be completed before 12:00 p.m. on the day of departure. At that time, the guest must return the apartment key and settle any outstanding charges.

Early Check-In and Late Check-Out, as well as any apartment changes requested by the guest, are subject to availability and entail an additional charge. Guests are advised to request these services in advance, preferably at least one day prior to arrival or departure.

The Apartments may assist guests with their luggage at the time of Check-In or Check-Out, if necessary.

ARTICLE 2.- GUEST REGISTRATION

In accordance with Order INT/1922/2003, Royal Decree 933/2021 and Article 25.1 of Organic Law 4/2015 on the Protection of Public Safety, all guests, whether individuals or members of groups, must be registered in the Apartments' Guest Register (the "Guest Registration").

For this purpose, each guest must present a valid identification document and complete the Guest Registration form provided by the Apartments, which shall be signed once duly completed. Registration is formalized by means of a declaration of responsibility, and the guest shall be responsible for the accuracy of the data provided, which shall be communicated to the competent police authorities. Consequently, the Apartments shall not be liable for the content thereof.

Guests over the age of 14 must personally sign the registration form. Details for minors under the age of 14 must be provided by the responsible accompanying adult, who shall complete and sign the registration form on the minor's behalf.

Any accompanying adult of a minor under the age of 18 must declare their relationship with each minor and, where they do not hold parental authority or legal guardianship, must submit a written authorization signed by the parents or legal guardians, together with any supporting documentation evidencing such relationship when requested.

For minors travelling with an adult as part of organized trips, the travel agency or tour operator must provide in advance the documentation accrediting the relationship or the corresponding authorization.

Only duly registered persons may access the apartments, unless expressly authorized by the Apartments Management.

Citizens of European Union Member States may present their national identity card or passport. Guests from non-EU countries must present a passport, except for nationals of Andorra, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland or San Marino, for whom a national identity document shall also be accepted.

The Apartments reserve the right of admission and may deny accommodation to persons who fail to comply with the obligations set forth in this article.

ARTICLE 3.- ADMISSION OF MINORS

Reservations and stays of minors travelling alone or without an adult with legal capacity to care for them are not permitted. Failure to comply with these requirements shall prevent the admission, registration and stay of the minor at the Apartments.

The accompanying adult shall always be responsible for the behaviour, safety and well-being of the minor, as well as for compliance with these Regulations.

The Apartments may inform the competent authorities of any situation detected that may affect the well-being or protection of the minor.

ARTICLE 4.- ORGANIZED GROUPS

Organized groups shall be those reserving ten (10) or more apartments for the same arrival and departure dates, regardless of the booking channel used. In such cases, the group representative shall be the natural or legal person who formalized the booking or contracted the service package with the Apartments, including, where applicable, travel agencies or tour operators.

The representative shall be the sole contact person with the Apartments and shall assume responsibility for coordinating the remaining members of the group, as well as ensuring compliance with these Regulations by all members.

The representative must provide the Apartments, prior to the arrival of the group, with a complete list of all members including the identification data required to expedite their inclusion in the Guest Register upon arrival, guaranteeing the accuracy of all information provided.

In the event of damage or breaches of these Regulations or any conduct attributable to members of the group, the representative shall be jointly and severally liable to the Apartments and must actively cooperate in identifying those responsible and in fully compensating for any damage caused, without prejudice to the legal actions that may be taken against the persons directly responsible.

ARTICLE 5.- ACCESS OF GUESTS AND NATURE AND USE OF ACCOMMODATION

Guests may access and remain in the Apartments provided that they comply at all times with applicable law and with these Regulations.

The Apartments constitute temporary tourist accommodation and are intended exclusively for stays of a maximum duration of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days. Under Spanish law, establishing habitual residence in a touristic Apartment is prohibited.

ARTICLE 6.- DURATION OF STAY AND USE OF APARTMENTS

Apartments shall be occupied exclusively during the nights booked and within the Check-In and Check-Out times established in these Regulations.

During periods of high occupancy (due to availability or cleaning schedules) or due to exceptional circumstances beyond the Apartments' control, apartment availability may be delayed by up to three (3) hours, without entitling the guest to any compensation.

If a guest does not arrive at the Apartments before 11:59 p.m. on the scheduled arrival date and has not previously notified a delay, the reservation shall be considered a "no show", leading to automatic cancellation and application of the agreed cancellation conditions, including, where applicable, charges corresponding to the first night or the total amount of the stay, in accordance with the applicable rate's cancellation policy.

Any extension of the stay beyond the contracted period shall require express authorization from the Apartments. If the guest remains in the apartment without such authorization, one additional night shall automatically be charged. If the guest also refuses to vacate the apartment, the Apartments reserve the right to request the intervention of the competent authorities to proceed with eviction.

The invoiced stay shall be the contracted stay, regardless of whether the guest decides to leave the Apartments prior to the scheduled departure date. In all cases, the guest must fully pay for all services consumed up to the effective departure date.

If a guest is absent from the Apartments for a period exceeding seventy-two (72) hours without prior notice, the Apartments may consider the stay terminated early, cancel the reservation and remove the guest's belongings from the apartment pursuant to Article 30 of these Regulations, following a reasonable attempt to contact the guest using the details provided at registration.

ARTICLE 7.- NUMBER OF OCCUPANTS PER APARTMENT AND VISITORS

The maximum number of occupants per apartment as stated in the reservation may not be exceeded. The maximum permitted occupancy shall be that established by law according to the category of the apartment booked. Any breach of this rule shall entitle the Apartments to automatically cancel the reservation and apply its right of admission, which shall entail the eviction of all persons occupying the apartment and full payment of the reservation.

Accommodation of third parties without the prior consent of the Apartments or failure to comply with the Guest Registration procedures required under applicable regulations is not permitted. External visitors must identify themselves at reception and shall not be allowed access to guest apartments. The Apartments provide common areas for receiving visitors. Management may order the immediate departure of any unauthorized visitor.

ARTICLE 8.- BILLING AND PAYMENT

The Apartments shall issue invoices in the name of the person who made the reservation, covering both accommodation nights and all services consumed or contracted.

Should payment be assumed by a third party, this circumstance must be expressly communicated during the check-in process.

The minimum billable unit shall be one full day, which shall be deemed completed at 12:00 p.m. on the day following arrival. The payment methods accepted by the Apartments are:

- i. Credit and debit cards (MasterCard, Visa, American Express, Maestro, Diners Club, UnionPay, JCB);
- ii. Bank transfers, exclusively for group bookings or when made at least 48 hours prior to Check-In;

The cost of contracted services shall be paid upon presentation of the invoice, unless otherwise agreed.

Products and items placed in the apartment (such as minibar products, towels, bathrobes or others) that are consumed or removed shall be charged at the prices indicated in the apartment or, failing that, at reception. If, at Check-Out, any such items are missing, they shall be deemed consumed or removed and included in the final invoice.

The Apartments may issue interim invoices during the stay if the accumulated amount for accommodation and/or additional services exceeds EUR 1,000.

The Apartments may also require payment at any time for services provided other than accommodation, upon presentation of the corresponding invoice.

In the event of an attempted departure from the Apartments with unpaid invoices, in whole or in part, the Apartments may request the intervention of the competent authorities.

II. APARTMENTS' RIGHT OF ADMISSION
