IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Important notes to ensure that your stay goes smoothly, both for you and for other guests.

According to Portuguese law, noise is not allowed from 10 pm to 07 am. Please do not disturb the tranquility of the guesthouse and other guests, avoid shouting, singing, listening to loud music or similar attitudes during these hours.

Under the legislation, excessive noise may also carry a fine for the guest up to 2,000 Euros, so any disturbance may bring inconvenience both to you and to anyone else who wishes to use this accommodation in the future.

In case of smoke or fire, please alert people around you. Attack the fire with the fire extinguisher or the fire blanket located in the kitchen if it is safe to do so.

Inform the reception, security officer, or call the emergency number 112.

There are two first aid boxes available for customers. One in the kitchen and one in the access passage to the patio.

If you encounter smoke during your evacuation, keep it as low to the ground as possible.

We suggest keeping the front door locked, as well as your bedroom door and windows, whenever you leave the unit, even for a short time.

Do not leave jewelry, money, or any other valuables, such as cell phones, or computers, lying around the property.

Always keep your room key with you. If you cannot find or if you lose it, please inform the reception desk immediately.

When you leave your vehicle parked, make sure it is locked properly, even if you are only gone for a short time. Remove all valuables from the vehicle.

Please notify the reception or security officer if you notice anything unusual, such as someone strange inside the Guesthouse, or if you notice any strange behaviour from another guest.

Never allow people to enter who are not identified or with deliveries that have not been requested. All our employees have a badge, with the name and logo of our company. In case of doubt, contact the reception or the security officer.

In case of a power cut or other electrical problems, do not try to repair them. Inform reception to request a maintenance technician.

All damages and malfunctions that occur during your stay must be reported to the reception in order to be repaired and charged.
